May/June 2022

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2022 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 55 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

be awarded in line with:

specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

ded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

be awarded positively:

are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do are not deducted for errors are not deducted for omissions s should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed n as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark is not required according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

ded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade threshold descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONSApplying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criterion to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The ‘Level Descriptor’ should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

Question	Answer	Marks
1(a)	Describe the activities of the Young Italy movement.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘It was founded in 1831 by Mazzini.’ ‘It recruited Italians under the age of 40.’ ‘Its aim was to create a united Italian republic.’ ‘It encouraged uprisings in Italian states that were occupied by Austria.’ ‘It plotted a revolt in Savoy and Piedmont in 1833.’ ‘It tried to start uprisings in Sicily, Tuscany and Bologna in the 1840s.’ ‘It was finally defeated after an attempted revolt in Milan in 1853.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0
1(b)	Why was Cavour suspicious of Garibaldi?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘Cavour was suspicious of Garibaldi because Garibaldi was a republican. Garibaldi wanted to set up an Italian republic while Cavour wanted a united Italy to be a kingdom under Piedmont and its king Victor Emmanuel. He was worried that if a republic was set up, foreign powers might intervene and undo Cavour’s achievements.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘This was because Garibaldi was a republican.’ ‘He regarded Garibaldi as an agitator who had no serious plans.’ ‘He was worried that Garibaldi’s actions would upset foreign powers like France.’ ‘Garibaldi acted independently of Cavour and Piedmont and this made Cavour suspicious.’ ‘Garibaldi’s exploits in Sicily were out of Cavour’s control.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘Cavour did not trust Garibaldi because they wanted to achieve different things.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	‘Garibaldi’s success in Sicily was the turning point in the winning of Italian unification.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Garibaldi’s success in Sicily was the turning point. He and his Redshirts took control of Sicily and got rid of the Bourbon rulers. This put Garibaldi in a position to return to the mainland and conquer the rest of the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies from the Bourbons. This was important because it was the largest state in Italy. Garibaldi then handed over his conquests to Victor Emmanuel of Piedmont which went a long way to unifying Italy. It was the biggest single step in this process and so was the turning point.’ OR e.g. ‘I do not think his success was the turning point because there was still a lot to do to unify Italy. Although he went on to conquer Naples, he needed the help of the Piedmont army to defeat the Neapolitan army and Piedmont had conquered most of the Pope’s lands. For me, the turning point was when Cavour and Napoleon met at Plombières and agreed to provoke a war with Austria. Although this was not totally successful, it started the process of unification. Cavour’s diplomacy was far more important than Garibaldi’s actions.’	4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘This led to the conquest of the rest of the south of Italy.’ ‘This led to Garibaldi’s handing over his conquests to Victor Emmanuel.’ ‘The meeting of Cavour and Napoleon at Plombières was the turning point.’ ‘Garibaldi defeating the Bourbon Kingdom of the Two Sicilies gave Piedmont control of southern Italy.’ ‘The conquest of the Papal regions by Piedmont was a crucial move.’ ‘Garibaldi could have never unified Italy by himself; he had to hand events over to Piedmont.’	2–3

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'Garibaldi's success was very important as it changed the whole situation in Italy.'

Question	Answer	Marks
2(a)	Describe how the Zollverein worked.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'It was an organisation of German states which managed tariffs and economic policies in their lands.' 'Prussia was the leading country in the Zollverein.' 'Austria was not a member.' 'It was a unified customs area in Germany.' 'It reduced the number of currencies being used.' 'It boosted free trade within the union.' 'It tried to limit imports from outside the customs union.' 'It helped the economies of member states to flourish.' 'It encouraged the expansion of railways and roads in the union.' 'It helped its members to industrialise.' 'It made commercial agreements with other countries such as Sweden and Austria.' 'In 1833, several German customs unions joined together to form the Zollverein.'

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	Why did the Schleswig-Holstein question present Bismarck with opportunities?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'This gave Bismarck an opportunity to weaken Austria's position in Germany and to strengthen Prussia's position. After Austria and Prussia defeated Denmark, Austria took Holstein and Prussia took Schleswig. However, Austria had to go through Prussia to reach Holstein. Bismarck knew these arrangements would soon lead to disputes with Austria which he could use to cause a war. Austria was a major obstacle to a unified Germany under Prussia and had to be dealt with. When a dispute did happen, Bismarck was able to make Austria look like the aggressor and went to war. Austria was defeated, leaving Prussia as the leading power in Germany and setting up the North German Confederation.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'It led to Austria and Germany working together which was bound not to work.' 'It allowed Bismarck to create a war with Austria.' 'The agreement over Schleswig-Holstein gave Bismarck opportunities to pick a quarrel with Austria.' 'It led to Prussia becoming the leading power in Germany.' 'It allowed Bismarck to weaken Austria's position in Germany.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'It gave Bismarck opportunities to control events and cause wars.'		1
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question		0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	'The Franco-Prussian War was more important than the Austro-Prussian War in bringing about German unification.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
Level 5 Explains with evaluation of 'how far' As Level 4 plus evaluation.		10
Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.		7–9
Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'The war with France was much more important. This was because France was a massive obstacle on the way to unification. The last thing France wanted was a more powerful Prussia and it would try and prevent it. Bismarck decided that the only way to get rid of this French obstacle was to go to war. Bismarck engineered a war over the Ems Telegram and defeated France. The war united German states behind Prussia and this led to the unification of Germany soon after the end of the war.' OR e.g. 'The war with Austria was more important. Austria and Prussia were rivals in Germany and the only way Bismarck was going to be able to unite Germany under Prussia was to get Austria out of the way. After the war, Austria had to agree to stay out of German affairs. This left things open for Prussia. A North German Confederation was set up under the control of Prussia. This was a huge stepping stone to a unified Germany and made it inevitable.'		4–6
Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'The war with Austria meant Austria was no longer a rival to Prussia.' 'The war with Austria led to the North German Confederation.' 'After the war, Austria had to stay out of German affairs.' 'The war with France united the German states under Prussia.' 'The French defeat meant that France was not in a position to stop a unification of Germany.'		2–3
Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'The war with France was far more important because it allowed Bismarck to unify Germany.'		1

3(a)	Describe the work of missionaries in nineteenth-century Africa.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'To convert Africans to Christianity.' 'They explored and mapped Africa.' 'They set up schools.' 'Missionaries like Livingstone opposed slavery.' 'They set up, and ran, missions.' 'They brought medical care to Africans.' 'They opposed some local African practices and beliefs.'

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	Why was the Boxer Rising important for China?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The Boxer Rising was important for China because it weakened the Qing dynasty. The Empress had to agree to humiliating terms including foreign legations having troops in Beijing and massive reparations being paid. The dynasty limped on, but the country descended into disorder and the dynasty was overthrown in 1911. The Boxer Rising and its defeat started this.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'It led to many Chinese cities being occupied by outside powers.' 'It led to atrocities against the Chinese by occupying powers.' 'China had to pay reparations.' 'It saw the end of Western attempts to colonise China.' 'It weakened the Qing dynasty.' 'The Boxer Rising was important because it stood for anti-imperialism in China.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'It was important for China because it meant so much at the time and since then.'		1
Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	Which was more beneficial for the local population, indirect rule in Nigeria or assimilation in Senegal? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘which was more beneficial’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The system of indirect rule in Nigeria did not really help the local people. The traditional rulers and systems of government were kept simply to be used for British interests and to enable the British to govern. The traditional chiefs became stooges for the British and in many areas became despotic rulers. The system excluded the local educated elite and just led to Britain exploiting local resources. Britain had the real power and this left Nigeria subservient and underdeveloped.’ OR e.g. ‘The policy of assimilation in Senegal was not good for the local population. This was because it involved imposing French culture on Africans. The culture, language and way of dressing of France was imposed on Senegal because of the belief that French civilisation was superior to African civilisation. This meant that the local population lost their own traditions and customs.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Under indirect rule the tribal structures were kept as a way of allowing the British to have the real power.’ ‘I think the British system in Nigeria was better for the local people. This was because they kept their traditional chiefs who were recognised by the British and given respect.’ ‘The local people welcomed indirect rule because it meant there was no tampering with their values and traditions.’ ‘The people in Nigeria were allowed to continue with their religion of Islam.’ ‘The Emir’s rule was autocratic and often brutal.’ ‘The system in Nigeria encouraged bribery and corruption.’ ‘Indirect rule did nothing to train future local leaders.’ ‘In Senegal, traditional rulers and traditions were ignored.’ ‘In Senegal, all the power went to the colonisers and not the local people.’ ‘The big advantage of assimilation was that some of the local people in Senegal became French citizens.’ ‘In Senegal, forced labour was used.’ ‘Local people in Senegal were not allowed to form political parties.’ ‘In Senegal, local traditions and customs were ignored.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘The system in Nigeria was better and helped the local people more.’	1

Question	Answer	Marks
4(b)	Why was Austria-Hungary interested in events in the Balkans?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘Austria was interested in events in the Balkans because there was a lot of instability there due to nationalism. In 1908, Austria had annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina and nationalist movements were determined to undo this by terrorism and other methods. In 1914, Serb terrorists assassinated the Austrian heir and Austria decided to use the opportunity to deal with Serbia and crush Serb nationalism.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘Austria-Hungary was worried by the growing power of Serbia.’ ‘Serbia wanted to unite Bosnia and Herzegovina into one Serbian nation.’ ‘The Balkans were not stable and bordered the Austrian Empire.’ ‘The Ottoman Empire was crumbling and this made Austria worried about events in the Balkans.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘It was interested in these events because they affected Austria a lot.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
4(c)	Which was more to blame for the arms race, Britain or Germany? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘which was more to blame’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Britain was more to blame because it was the first country to build a dreadnought – a new battleship that was faster and more powerful than any ship before. It made all other warships obsolete. It also built new battle cruisers that were very fast. Building these ships meant that Germany had to respond, otherwise it would be in great danger from British sea power. It built some dreadnoughts and Britain responded by building more – 23 by 1914. Britain started off the race and continued it.’ OR e.g. ‘Germany was to blame. It had a new aggressive foreign policy because it wanted to become a great power. This meant that it began to build up its armed forces. It increased the size of its army and this forced countries like France and Russia to increase the size of their armies as well. It also passed naval laws as early as 1890 which were designed to make Germany’s navy larger than Britain’s. This forced Britain to respond. Many countries in Europe were worried about a new expanding and aggressive Germany.’	4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Britain began building dreadnoughts in 1906.’ ‘Germany started passing naval laws to expand its army in 1890.’ ‘Britain and France forced each other to build more and more battleships.’ ‘Britain’s dreadnoughts made all other warships obsolete.’ ‘Germany increased the size of its army, forcing other countries to do the same.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘Both countries were to blame because they were both taking part in the arms race.’	1

5(a)	What territorial demands did Clemenceau make during the Paris Peace Conference?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘Alsace-Lorraine had to be returned to France.’ ‘He wanted some of Germany’s colonies.’ ‘The Saar Basin was to be given to France.’ ‘He wanted the Rhineland to be an independent state to give France protection from a German attack.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0
5(b)	Why was the break-up of the Austro-Hungarian Empire confirmed in the Treaty of St Germain?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘This happened because one of Wilson’s Fourteen Points was that the peoples of the Austrian Empire should be given the opportunity for self-determination. This meant people like the Czechs. This is why the states of Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia were created and Poland was re-created.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘This was because it was defeated in the war.’ ‘The Austrians were not allowed to take part in the peace negotiations.’ ‘It was one of Wilson’s Fourteen Points.’ ‘The Empire had fallen apart in the war.’ ‘This was a punishment for helping Germany to start the war.’ ‘Austria was so comprehensively defeated in the war that it could not stop it.’ ‘Towards the end of the war, parts of the Empire had declared independence.’ ‘Allies had promised it to the minorities during the war.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘It was decided that this was the best thing to do to the Empire.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
5(c)	Who had to compromise more during the peace negotiations in Paris, Clemenceau or Lloyd George? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘who had to compromise more’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Lloyd George did not have to compromise much. He got most of what he wanted. He wanted to make sure that Germany was not weakened too much because he wanted it as a trading partner for Britain. He was pleased that Germany kept the Rhineland because this was where a lot of German industry was and he wanted Germany to be able to afford to buy British goods.’ OR e.g. ‘Clemenceau had to compromise quite a lot. He wanted Germany to be seriously weakened for a long time but he had to give up the idea of the Rhineland becoming an independent state and the Saar Basin being given to France. He would also have liked the reparations to have been much higher.’	5 to 6 4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Lloyd George was able to gain colonies, thus expanding the British Empire.’ ‘Lloyd George had persuaded Clemenceau to moderate his approach towards Germany.’ ‘Lloyd George was pleased that Germany’s economy would be able to contribute to British trading.’ ‘Lloyd George felt that Germany would still be strong enough to stop the spread of communism.’ ‘Lloyd George was not happy that some German speaking areas were under the rule of other countries.’ ‘The reparations were higher than Lloyd George really wanted.’ ‘Clemenceau failed to get a guarantee from Britain and the USA that they would help if France was attacked.’ ‘Clemenceau failed to get the Rhineland taken away from Germany.’ ‘Clemenceau got Alsace-Lorraine returned to France.’ ‘Clemenceau got the size of Germany’s armed forces drastically reduced.’	2–3

Question	Answer	Marks
6(b)	Why was involvement in the Spanish Civil War of benefit to Hitler?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'German involvement in the Spanish Civil War helped Hitler because it helped him draw Italy closer to him. Italy was also involved in the Civil War and so they could act together. This helped Hitler because he was keen to draw Italy away from Britain and France. Hitler was successful because in 1937 the Rome-Berlin Axis was formed.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'If Franco won, then Hitler hoped that Spain would be an ally of Germany.' 'Germany's air force, the Luftwaffe, could be tested.' 'Hitler could use it as a dress rehearsal for a European war.' 'It would draw Italy closer to Germany.' 'War in Spain would distract from what Hitler was up to in central Europe.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'Hitler thought that being involved in the Spanish Civil War would help make Germany stronger.'		1

7(c)	Was it surprising that Britain and the United States agreed at Yalta that Eastern Europe should be a Soviet sphere of influence? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘was it surprising’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘This was not surprising at all. The Allies recognised that the Soviet Union needed security, especially after Germany had invaded it. Stalin hoped that this sphere of influence in Eastern Europe would mean a wall of countries that were friendly to the Soviet Union and which would protect it from invasion in the future. Britain and America probably thought that this would not lead to complete Soviet domination of Eastern Europe because it was also agreed that there would be free elections in these countries.’ OR e.g. ‘I think this was very surprising, especially since both Churchill and Roosevelt were very anti-Communist. Stalin wanted to go further than having a sphere of influence and really wanted to control them. This was clear when it was agreed that there would be Communists in the Polish government. It also seemed to go against another agreement at Yalta – that there would be free democratic elections in countries freed from Nazi control.’	4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The communist ideology was expansionist and Stalin would want to impose the Soviet system of government.’ ‘It was a continuation of the wartime alliance and working together.’ ‘It was reasonable for the Soviet Union to have some protection.’ ‘Soviet help was needed in the war against Japan.’ ‘Churchill and Roosevelt were both very anti-Communist.’	2–3

It retreated to the River Marne near Paris. This meant the German army was able to enter France and advance towards Paris. This meant the BEF had failed.’ OR e.g. ‘I think the BEF did achieve its aims. Its main aim was to slow down and stop the German advance. It did this at the Battle of the Marne which ended with the Germans having to retreat. This meant that Paris was saved and the Schlieffen Plan had failed. It certainly did not change the outcome of the war. At first, American involvement was very small. It helped the Allies deal with German mines in the North Sea and sent some warships. However, by March 1918 only 300 000 American soldiers had arrived and they did not have much impact at first.’ OR e.g. ‘The American entry was decisive. The arrival of US soldiers was an enormous psychological boost for the Allies. The Germans lost over a million men in 1918 at the time when the Allies were gaining millions of US troops. 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Speculators were responsible for the Depression. They had bought shares hoping to make a profit. This meant that share prices went up until they were overvalued. When they started to go down speculators panicked and sold their shares at massive losses. This caused banks to collapse which then led to business failures and unemployment. So the speculators started it all.’ OR e.g. ‘There were problems with US industry before the Wall Street Crash and these caused the Depression. Mass production had led to overproduction and demand for goods fell. 22(c)	How far have the Likud and Labor parties agreed over Palestine? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘They have agreed over the basic points and have both taken a hard line with Palestinians and Arab countries. They both disagree with the idea of Palestinian self-determination and are both against a setting up of an independent Palestinian state. For a long time they both agreed not to negotiate with the PLO.’ OR e.g. ‘I think they have disagreed over lots of things. In the 1990s, Likud supported the expansion of Jewish settlements in the occupied territories and the idea of a ‘Greater Israel’. Labor has been keener to find a peaceful settlement with the Palestinians. Also, they disagreed over the future of Jerusalem.’	4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Likud refuses to give up Israel’s sovereignty over the West Bank and Gaza.’ ‘Labor has been more willing to negotiate with the Palestinians.’ ‘Labor has been keen on the issue of Palestinian autonomy.’ ‘Likud supports Jewish settlements in the occupied territories.’ ‘For a time they both refused to negotiate with the PLO.’ ‘They both disagree with the idea of an independent Palestinian state.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘I do not think they have agreed much. They have lots of disagreements over it.’	1
