May/June 2022

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2022 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 63 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONSApplying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response, the overall criterion to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The ‘Level Descriptor’ should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level, these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

Question	Answer	Marks
1(a)	What was Pope Pius IX's Allocution of 1848? Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'It was a statement by the Pope.' 'It stated that the Papal States belonged to the Catholic Church and that this was not going to change.' 'It was a statement that was against demands being made at the time for reforms.' 'It was a statement against Italian nationalism.' 'It was made after Durando led papal troops to support Charles Albert.' 'It was a statement saying that the Papacy was universal and therefore above all national states.' Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	4
1(b)	Why was Napoleon III important to Italian unification? Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6 Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'He was important because he met with Cavour at Plombières and agreed to support Cavour in a war against Austria. This took place in 1859 and, although it did not all go well, Piedmont was able to invade the central Italian states and this was a big step towards unification. This was made possible by Napoleon.' Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'He helped Piedmont take over central Italian states.' 'The French victories at Magenta and Solferino resulted in the liberation of Lombardy from Austrian rule.' 'At Plombières he agreed to help Piedmont.' 'He was responsible for Venetia becoming part of a united Italy.' Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'He was important because he did a lot to help unification happen. Without him it may have not happened.' Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	6

1(c)	Who contributed more to Italian unification, Mazzini or Garibaldi? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Garibaldi was much more important because his actions actually led to unification. He led the ‘Thousand’ to conquer Sicily and he then moved to the mainland and captured Naples. He then handed over all his gains in Sicily and in the south to Victor Emmanuel. This was a massive step towards unification and would not have happened without Garibaldi.’ OR e.g. ‘Mazzini was more important because he spread the idea of a unified Italy. He had a lot of influence on many people such as Garibaldi. He set up Young Italy. This was full of intellectuals who spread his idea of Italian unification. He led several attempted uprisings. These failed, but his main importance was because of his ideas – to remove Austria from Italy, to end the Pope’s power over the Papal States, and to create a national government for Italy.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Garibaldi conquered Sicily and Naples.’ ‘Garibaldi took the initiative by invading Sicily.’ ‘Garibaldi handed much of Italy over to Victor Emmanuel.’ ‘Garibaldi helped to make Venetia part of Italy.’ ‘Garibaldi’s exploits helped to whip up the spirit of Italian nationalism.’ ‘Mazzini spread the idea of a united Italy.’ ‘Mazzini set up the Young Italy movement which was very influential.’ ‘Mazzini influenced Garibaldi’s ideas a lot.’ ‘Mazzini’s writing was very important and spread the idea of getting rid of Austria from Italy.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘I think Garibaldi contributed more than Mazzini. He was very popular and had lots of support.’

Question	Answer	Marks
2(a)	Describe what happened in the Frankfurt Parliament in 1848–49.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail		1–4
	e.g. 'Representatives from all over Germany were elected to it.' 'It held long debates that often went nowhere.' 'It discussed plans for a united Germany.' 'It attempted to take over the running of the war with Denmark.' 'It produced the constitution for Germany.' 'It proposed a constitutional monarchy.' 'It voted to offer the position of emperor to Frederick William of Prussia.' 'It offered the position of emperor to Frederick William, who refused it.' 'Many of the members were ordered home by their state governments.' 'It moved to Stuttgart with few members left.' 'It was broken up by troops in 1849.'

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	Why did Frederick William IV react as he did to the disturbances in Berlin in March 1848?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'When revolution broke out in Berlin, Frederick William acted as he did because he did not want to be a despot and did not want to be as reactionary as his father. He rather liked being popular with the people. When the disturbances began, he simply accepted the demands such as a constitution, elections and a united Germany.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'He reacted this way because he was not a despot.' 'He reacted that way because he was caught by surprise.' 'He reacted by accepting the demands of the people because of the strength of their fury.' 'He wanted to be popular with his people and at the head of the movement.' 'He eventually recalled the army because the tide was turning in favour of the establishment.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'He acted like that because he had no choice. He was in a position of weakness.'		1
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question		0

2(c)	How surprising was it that Prussia emerged as the dominant power in Germany? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how surprising’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think this is very surprising because for a long time it looked as if Austria would be the dominant power. When the German Confederation was set up, Austria was probably the leading country in it. It was one of the major powers in Europe and President of the German Confederation.’ OR e.g. ‘This was not surprising because of Prussia’s growing economic power. Prussia was the leading member of the Zollverein which included many major German states. This helped Prussia strengthen its economy. Austria was not in the Zollverein and therefore did not grow so economically strong as Prussia. Also, Prussia could trade more easily because of the Rhine, while Austria in southern Germany was more backward and still very agricultural.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Prussia was in the Zollverein, Austria was not.’ ‘The Austrian defeat against Prussia left Prussia as the dominant power.’ ‘Prussia was more economically advanced than Austria.’ ‘Austria lost Russia as an ally, making it internationally weaker.’ ‘Military defeats against France in 1859 made Austria weaker.’ ‘Austria was left out of the North German Confederation.’ ‘The Convention of Gastein helped Prussia manipulate Austria.’ ‘Austria opposed German unification.’ ‘The Austrian Empire was huge and very powerful.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘It was very surprising because few people thought that Prussia was strong enough to dominate Germany.’

3(a)	What did Lugard achieve in Nigeria? Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘He acted against slavery.’ ‘He ruled through native rulers.’ ‘He established indirect rule, which was effective.’ ‘He established British control over Northern Nigeria.’ ‘He united the north and south into the Protectorate of Nigeria.’ Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	4
3(b)	Why did the Chinese try to resist the British in the Opium Wars? Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6 Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The Chinese resisted Britain because British merchants were selling opium in China. They sent it to their warehouses in Guangzhou and then sold it to Chinese smugglers. This was against the wishes of the Chinese government because it led to addiction and affected large sections of the Chinese population with what the Chinese government saw as moral decay. The Chinese government wished to stop this.’ Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘This was because the British were importing opium into China.’ ‘Many Chinese people were becoming addicted to opium.’ ‘China wanted to stop Britain interfering with its trading system.’ ‘The Chinese government had told Britain to stop trading in opium.’ ‘The trade in opium damaged China’s balance of trade.’ ‘China did not want to come under more Western influences.’ Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘China did this because Britain was becoming very aggressive and had to be stopped.’ Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	6

3(c)	‘The British response to the Indian Mutiny was justified.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The British response was not justified and even people in Britain were horrified by it. The response was very violent with thousands of Indians being killed. They fired Indians from cannons and made Muslims eat pork and Hindus eat beef. Many Indians were tortured. When the British army captured towns, they went on a rampage destroying everything and committing atrocities. Far more Indians than British were killed and this was not justified.’ OR e.g. ‘I think the British response was justified. Firstly, the Indian rebels had committed atrocities against British men and women, especially at Cawnpore where, after a siege, women and children were slaughtered. Also, the reforms that followed were justified. The British government took over from the East India Company, which was not running India properly. It introduced some sensible reforms like consulting the Indians more.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The Indian rebels had committed atrocities and had to be dealt with.’ ‘The British slaughtered many Indians unnecessarily.’ ‘The British were very cruel to Indians, for example, making Muslims eat pork.’ ‘The reforms that were introduced, such as involving Indians more in local government, were sensible.’ ‘The East India Company was not governing India properly and it was a good move to get rid of it.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘I disagree with this. The British were not justified in responding in the way they did. It was too cruel.’

4(a)	What was the Triple Entente? Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘It was between Russia, France and Britain.’ ‘It developed from the Franco-Russian Alliance, the Entente Cordiale and the Anglo-Russian Entente.’ ‘It was not an alliance.’ ‘It was a friendly agreement between countries.’ ‘It came into being in 1907.’ ‘It was meant as a balance to the Triple Alliance consisting of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy.’ ‘It was formed to protect themselves.’ Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	4
4(b)	Why was the launching of the first dreadnought in 1906 important? Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6 Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘It was important because it was so fast and powerful. It had more powerful guns than ever before and could fire further with more accuracy. It could also fire torpedoes. It was driven by steam turbines. This made it faster than any other warship. It was also protected by thick armoured plating and so was difficult to sink. The dreadnought was a revolution in the development of battleships and no other ships at the time stood a chance against it.’ Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘It was important because it was more powerful than any other ship at the time.’ ‘It was a great symbol of British national power.’ ‘This accelerated the naval race with Germany.’ ‘It was faster than any other battleship at the time.’ ‘It gave Britain clear naval supremacy.’ ‘It led to Germany starting to build dreadnoughts in 1907.’ Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘It was important because it was a big event that was known all round the world. It changed the situation completely.’ Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0	6

4(c)	‘The Austrian ultimatum to Serbia was more important than Franz Ferdinand’s assassination in bringing about the First World War.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The Austrian ultimatum was more important in causing the war. It was deliberately designed to make sure Serbia could not agree to all the demands and made war inevitable. Until this point, it was not inevitable. It led to Russia, who was friendly with Serbia, mobilising and then Serbia rejecting the ultimatum. This immediately led to Austria declaring war on Serbia. Within days Germany had declared war on Russia and the First World War had started.’ OR e.g. ‘The assassination was more important because it started the whole movement to war. The assassination was carried out by Serbs and the Serbian government was probably involved. Franz Ferdinand was the heir to the Austrian throne and so the assassination was seen as a direct attack on Austria and its empire. Serbia had long been a problem for Austria and the assassination gave the upper hand in Austria to those wanting to take tough action against Serbia. Germany then gave Austria the ‘blank cheque’ allowing it to do what it liked with Serbia. All this made war inevitable and started the July Crisis which directly led to war.’	5 to 6 4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The Austrian ultimatum was designed to lead to war.’ ‘Serbia rejected the ultimatum and Austria declared war.’ ‘The assassination was a direct challenge to Austria and its empire.’ ‘The assassination gave Austria the chance to engineer war with Serbia.’ ‘The assassination gave the upper hand to those in Austria who wanted to attack Serbia.’ ‘Austria blamed Serbia for the assassination.’	2–3

5(b)	Why did Lloyd George not want to punish Germany harshly?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Lloyd George's main concern was Britain's trade and wealth. For these to prosper, Britain needed to return to the trade it had before the war and for this to happen it was important for Germany to economically recover. This is the reason Lloyd George did not want Germany facing huge reparations, which could stop its recovery.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'He wanted Britain to trade with Germany.' 'He wanted Germany to economically recover.' 'High reparations would take money out of Germany.' 'He did not want Germany seeking revenge in a few years' time.' 'He wanted a strong Germany to stand up to Communism and Russia.' 'He wanted to avoid France becoming too powerful.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'He did not want to do this because it would upset the Germans.'		1

5(c)	Who had to compromise more during the peace negotiations in Paris, Clemenceau or Wilson? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘who had to compromise more’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Wilson had to compromise a lot. He had got the League of Nations, but he was disappointed not to get the free navigation of the seas. He also had a big disappointment over self-determination. The German Empire was broken up and, instead of giving the colonies independence, Britain and France were going to run them on behalf of the League. It was also the case that the Sudeten Germans were not consulted about their future.’ OR e.g. ‘I think Clemenceau had to compromise the most. He was still worried about Germany being a future threat. He had wanted a treaty of guarantee where Britain and USA promised to come to France’s help if it was attacked by Germany. He did not get this. He was also disappointed that both the Saar Basin and the Rhineland were going to stay as parts of Germany. So overall, Clemenceau thought that France was vulnerable to a future German attack.’

Question	Answer	Marks
6(b)	Why did Haile Selassie speak to the Assembly of the League of Nations in June 1936?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Haile Selassie spoke to the League of Nations in June 1936 pleading for help because in 1935 Italian troops had invaded his country of Abyssinia. Mussolini had wanted to create an Italian empire for years. He used a dispute on the border with Somaliland (which was Italian) as the excuse. The Italian troops had modern weapons, and the Abyssinians did not stand a chance.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Haile Selassie made this speech because Italy had invaded his country.' 'He did this because the League had done little since the Italian invasion.' 'Haile Selassie did this because he wanted help from the League of Nations.' 'He did this because Italy was using chemical weapons against his people.' 'He did this in June because Addis Ababa had just been captured by Italian troops.'		2–3

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'I think the League did as much as it could. It faced several big problems, one of which was the absence of the USA. This made it difficult for the League to implement economic sanctions because the USA, being outside of the League, would continue to trade with Japan, so sanctions would have little impact. It would also be difficult to send an army without the support of the USA.' OR e.g. 'The League of Nations should have done much more. It acted far too slowly. By the time the Lytton Commission reached the area, the Japanese had firmly established themselves in Manchuria and were in the process of setting up a puppet state called Manchukuo. The League voted on the Lytton Report 18 months after the Japanese invasion.'	5 to 6 4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'The events took place on the other side of the world and there was little the League could do.' 'The USA was not a member of the League and this made it difficult to use military action.' 'Britain and France could not afford to impose economic sanctions.' What particularly worried him was the fear that Germany would be allowed to recover and become strong again. It would be in a position to threaten Russia again. 	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Trench warfare lasted so long because it was a defensive system and not offensive. The heavy protection, such as barbed wire, the machine guns and No Man's Land, all made the trenches very difficult to attack. Cavalry charges across No Man's Land could easily be cut down. Also, artillery attacks on the trenches were often inaccurate. There were some new weapons for attacking, like tanks, but it took some time before they were used properly. All this meant that trench warfare lasted for years.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The two sides were often evenly matched.' 10(b)	Why was the war at sea important?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The war at sea was important to Britain because most of its crucial supplies of food and other goods came from the USA across the sea. In 1917 the Germans introduced unrestricted submarine warfare. This involved using U-boats to sink all boats coming to Britain from the USA. So many ships were sunk that within months Britain was short of food and had to introduce rationing. If this had gone on for much longer, Britain could have been defeated. Only the use of the convoy system removed the threat to Britain.’

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The Eastern Front was very important. Russia’s possible involvement in the war made the Schlieffen Plan necessary and its actual involvement was the reason why the Schlieffen Plan failed – Germany had to send troops to fight Russia. This weakened the Germans in the west. Although much of the fighting did not go well for Russia, the Eastern Front did tie up many German troops that could have been used on the Western Front. Also, early Russian victories against the Austrian army did mean that Germany had to rush troops to the Eastern Front to support Austria. This is the reason the Eastern Front was important.’ OR e.g. ‘The war could only be won and lost on the Western Front. Developments on the Eastern Front were only important because of the effect they had on the Western Front. It was in the west where the main German armies were and it was here where the Americans sent their troops, making a decisive difference in 1918. It was the failure of the German offensive in 1918 on the Western Front that finished Germany off and made the Allied victory inevitable. The Western Front was far more important.’	4–6

Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Black consciousness was very important. It was led by Steve Biko and made black people proud of being black and proud of their history and culture. It also insisted that black people should stand up for themselves and not rely on white people in the struggle against apartheid. These ideas gave black South Africans a feeling of solidarity that made them stronger. It was black consciousness that inspired the students in the Soweto riots. This made the movement very important because it gave the struggle a new driving force.’ OR e.g. ‘I disagree. I think the most important part of the anti-apartheid movement was the external opposition. The United Nations passed resolutions against South Africa and declared that apartheid was a crime against humanity. The OAU gave South Africans military training and the countries around South Africa became independent. This put pressure on South Africa. Sanctions were also beginning to happen with sporting sanctions in the 1970s. All this isolated South Africa and meant it could not carry on its policies for much longer.’

21(b)	Why was the future of Palestine important for Arabs at the end of the Second World War?	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'At the end of the war Arabs thought they would be given a homeland in Palestine. They were very hopeful of this because of the British White Paper which was published in 1939. There was also talk of an Arab state during the Second World War. The Arabs had long hoped for their own country and they believed that they now had a real chance of achieving it, especially since, after a long hard war, Britain was no longer in a position to keep a large empire.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'They wanted a homeland.' 'They thought there were signs that they would be awarded Palestine as a homeland.' 'The issue of Palestine was bound to reach a climax after the war: would there be an Arab state or a Jewish one?' 'The Arab League was founded to run a campaign for an Arab state.' 'There was a danger that Palestine might be split up and a Jewish state established.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'This was because they cared about it a lot and were concerned about what was going to happen to it.'		1

Jews mounted a campaign of terror during 1946–48 in Palestine against the British and Arabs. Hundreds of British soldiers were killed and there were attacks on transport systems and airfields. Jewish organisations, like Irgun, kidnapped British soldiers and laid mines. The worst incident was in 1946 when the King David Hotel was bombed and 92 people were killed, including Britons, Arabs and Jews. The British government could not let this go on and there was pressure in Britain to leave Palestine. As a result of the terror campaign, Britain handed the issue of Palestine over to the UN in 1947 and British troops left in 1948.’ OR e.g. ‘I think the main reason Britain left Palestine was pressure from the USA. Britain’s decision to stay in Palestine after the Second World War was unpopular in the USA and when Britain started to limit Jewish immigration into Palestine, pressure from America on Britain to leave increased. There was a strong Jewish lobby in the USA and elections were due so Truman had to take notice of Jewish demands. He put pressure on the British government to accept a two-state solution and get out.’

22(b)	Why did the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO) use violent tactics?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The PLO argued that it was legitimate to use violent tactics because its attempts at using peaceful methods had not achieved much. By 1967, it was still a little-known organisation. The use of terror led to the PLO attracting international attention to the plight of the Palestinians. It began to carry out violence outside Israel such as airplane hijackings to create even more media coverage. Soon, Arafat was invited to speak to the UN General Assembly.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The PLO argued that it had no other methods at its disposal.' 'The PLO argued that these tactics would put pressure on other countries to change their policies towards Palestinian refugees.' 'The PLO started to use violent tactics after the 1967 war.' 'It did this after Yasser Arafat became Chairman of the organisation.' 'It did this because peaceful methods had not been very effective in winning attention to its cause.' 'The PLO argued that since violence had been used against Palestinians, it was therefore justifiable to use violence in response.'		2–3
